PROMISES AID IN TAX SUIT FIGHT

Gov. McCreary Issues a Statement of Matter.

IS PLAIN THAT CORPORATIONS

Have Dodged, He Asserts—
Says Cause of the People Must Be Defended.

PERTINENT SUBJECT HANDLED

Gov. McCreary has issued a statement in response to the letter addressed to him and to others by Mr. Justus Goebel. The Governor declares that "all persons who have made proper investigation know that the corporations in Kentucky have not been paying their just proportion of the taxes," and says that if the corporations which have instituted the suits persist in their efforts, "the State of Kentucky and the cause of the taxpayers should be defended in the courts by counsel in every way well equipped, and by all attorneys that may be needed to meet and cope with the many able attorneys who instituted the suits."

The Governor's statement follows:

"The letter of Mr. Justus Goebel, addressed to me and to all administrative and legislative officers of the State, and to all citizens of the Commonwealth who are interested in equal and uniform taxation, has been published generally in the newspapers and contains valuable information and important suggestions.

"He was present at the meetings of the Board of Valuation and Assessment, which occupied about five months and must be well-informed on the subjects to which he refers.

"The Board of Valuation and Assessment, consisting of Henry M. Bosworth, State Auditor; Thomas S. Rhea, State Treasurer, and C. F. Creel, Secretary of State, did their work well and faithfully.

"All persons who have made proper investigation know that corporations in Kentucky have not been paying their just proportion of the taxes, and there has been unjust and burdensome taxation upon the people as compared with what has been required to be paid by the large corporations of our State.

"I am opposed to discrimination, and believe that taxation should be uniform, and the corporations and the people assessed and taxed justly and fairly.

"In my message to the last Legislature, I recommended the passage of eight important bills, and all were enacted into law except the public utilities bill, which gave the Governor authority to appoint an assessment and valuation commission to do what the existing Board of Valuation and Assessment has done; but, as the members of that board had not under former administrations been active, I had no knowledge that the existing board would be active until I was assured by the members that they would do their duty and be just and fair, and the public utilities bill was not passed.

"The existing Board of Valuation and Assessment based their 1912 assessment on evidence of the values placed before them at great length, and I am sure they have presented what they believe, after careful examination and convincing proof, are just and fair assessments; and of about four hundred corporations assessed, only eight have protested in the courts.

"The eight suits that have been brought against the State may be contested through the Federal and State Courts, and are of great importance to the people and the State treasury. They involve for the State about four hundred thousand dollars annually, and for the county and city taxing districts about eight hundred thousand dollars annually, or a total of about one million two hundred thousand dollars.

"When the present administration came into office, less than one year ago, the State's indebtedness was more than one million dollars, with just and fair taxation the debt of the State would soon be extinguished; and I regret that important and powerful corporations are resisting the action of the Board of Valuation and Assessment and endeavoring to perpetuate taxation which their own admissions show to be unjust and unequal.

"If the corporations which have instituted suits persist in their efforts, the State of Kentucky and the cause of the taxpayers should be defended in the courts by counsel in every way well-equipped, and by all the attorneys that may be needed to meet and cope with the many able attorneys who instituted the suits.

"I have perfect confidence in the ability and known loyalty to the State's interests of Attorney General Garnett and his three assistants, and also in the able and well-equipped attorney, Mr. Rich, who, by request of the Attorney General, in writing, I have employed; but I will be pleased to appoint another attorney, or two others, if the Attorney General, in writing, should ask me to do so, as, under the law, I cannot employ counsel to represent the State without his request.

"Subsection 5 of sections 112-15 (article 2, page 218) of the Kentucky Statutes provides:

"The Attorney General and his Assistants shall attend to all litigation and business, in or out of the State, required of him or them under this act, or other existing law or laws hereinafter enacted, and also any litigation or business that any State officer may have in connection with or growing out of his official duty; and no State officer, board of trustees or the head of any department or institution of the State shall have authority to employ or to be represented by any other counsel or attorney-at-law, unless an emergency arises, which in the opinion of the Attorney General, requires the employment of other counsel, in order to properly protect the interest of the Commonwealth, in which event the Attorney General shall, in writing, setting forth reasons for such employment, request the Governor to employ such additional counsel."

"Before such counsel is employed, his fee and compensation shall be agreed upon and fixed by written contract by the Governor and said counsel, subject to the approval of the Attorney General."

"It is, therefore, apparent that I cannot appoint an attorney to assist the Attorney General in these suits until the Attorney General, in writing, requests me to do so, and also agrees with me on the compensation the counsel employed is to receive.

JAMES B. MCCREARY."

NO MONEY IN BANK WITH WHICH TO MEET CHECKS

Greensburg, Ind., Oct. 21.—A man giving the name of A. L. Johns, of Maxwell, Ky., came here and put up at a hotel for two or three days and then applied at the real estate office of Hagib & Ely for a farm. He said he was in the market for a farm and Mr. Hagib showed him around. He picked the A. J. Smith farm of 157 acres and wrote a check on a Maxwell, Ky., bank for $100 to bind the bargain. He told Mr. Hagib that he is afflicted with asthma and as he would have to stop over in Louisville to consult a specialist, he needed some ready money. Mr. Hagib accordingly cashed a check for him for $10. Both these checks have since been returned to a local bank marked "no funds."

YOUNG DIVORCEE WEDS
WITH BABE IN HER ARMS

Henderson, Ky., Nov. 2.—Mrs. Martha Carter, a mere girl aged 19, but a divorcee, was married at the court house Wednesday to R. T. Waters, age 41, also of Henderson, who had also been previously married. Truly Cupid plays queer pranks.

The divorcee-bride, with a babe in her arms, and her future husband, twice her age, drove to the city early Wednesday morning in a buggy drawn by a mule. After securing a license, they went to Judge Young's office, where they were united in marriage.

Instead of the traditional kiss, a hearty handshake was the salute given the wife by the husband at the conclusion of the ceremony.

Mrs. Waters was only recently divorced from her former husband, Lon Carter.

Sixty women were fined for wearing hats that protruded too far at Sidney, N. S. W. All went to jail rather than pay their fines.

GOV. HADLEY FOR VICE PRESIDENT

Eighteen of 24 Favor the Missourian.

NO SELECTION IS TO BE MADE

Until Next Tuesday On Account of Very Unusual Circumstances.

PROMINENT MEN MENTIONED

New York, Nov. 4.—Eighteen of twenty-four members of the Republican National Committee who have notified Chairman C. D. Hillis of their choice of a Vice Presidential candidate to succeed the late James S. Sherman, favor Gov. Hadley, of Missouri.

In a statement here to-night Chairman Hillis declared that no selection would be made by the National Committee until November 12, but he made public the desires of the twenty-four committeemen who have, openly stated their choice. Of these, aside from the majority for Gov. Hadley, two favored John Wanamaker, of Philadelphia; one Secretary of War Stimson, one Congressman S. W. McCall, of Massachusetts; one Justice Hughes, and one Gov. Goldsboro, of Maryland.

"The suggestion that members of the Republican National Committee should authorize the Executive Committee or the chairman of the committee to nominate a candidate for the Vice Presidency to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Mr. Sherman is not feasible, and therefore has not received favorable consideration," said Mr. Hillis.

"It has already been made clear that it would have been a physical impossibility for the members of the committee to attend a meeting prior to election day, there not being sufficient interim between the death of the Vice President and election day for the committee to convene. Proxies by wire would not have been legal and action based on such proxies would have been an unwarrantable innovation and would have established a dangerous precedent.

"A majority of the members of the committee to attend a meeting have expressed their choice for a candidate. Mr. Hale, of Maine, favors immediate action, but has not yet indicated his choice of a candidate. While the member of the committee from the State of Idaho has not given voice to his views, the Republican State Committee of Idaho has recommended the selection of Gov. Herbert S. Hadley, of Missouri.

The members of the committee who have publicly announced their preference for Gov. Hadley are: Lewis, of Vermont; Brooker, of Connecticut; Barker, of Alabama; Jackson, of Georgia; Moseley, of Mississippi; Brown, of the District of Columbia; Granger, of Ohio; Goodrich, of Indiana; Warren, of Michigan; Hawkins, of Minnesota; Neidringhaus, of Missouri; Harris, of Oklahoma; MacGregor, of Texas (Gov. Hadley or Wanamaker); Behn, of Porto Rico; Marlow, of Montana; Maxson, of Nevada; Pexton, of Wyoming; Spiess, of New Mexico.

For S. W. McCall; Estabrook, of New Hampshire.

For John Wanamaker; Barnes, of New York; McCulloch, of Kentucky.

For Justice Hughes; Jackson, of Maryland.

For Gov. Goldsboro; Martin, of Virginia.

For Secretary Stimson; McCoy, of the Philippines.

Gov. Hadley also has been recommended by: State Chairman Herbert W. Clark, of New Mexico; State Chairman Jesse F. McDonald, of Colorado; State Chairman F. C. Williams, of Vermont; Congressman E. W. Martin, of South Dakota; Congressman J. W. Fordney, of Michigan; Congressman William H. Wilder, of Massachusetts; Congressman E. J. Hull, of Connecticut.

Sought Death—Found It. Niagara Falls, N. Y., Nov. 3.—Christian Kiedhen, 45 years old, a city fireman, committed suicide today by jumping into the river, near Prospect Point, and going over the American falls.

J. H. Read, of Cambridge, Mass., was near the man when he entered the stream and tried to reach Kiedhen. The latter waved to Read as he went careening toward the falls and called out "Good-by."

No reason is known for the suicide. Nothing has been seen of the body.

GIRL SHOT BY FARMER
WHILE OUT AUTO RIDING

Marysville, Ky., Nov. 1.—Miss Mabel Dunn, aged twenty, of Noblesville, Ind., a visitor at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Owens here, was shot last night, and it is thought fatally wounded by Beat Gault, a farmer of this county. Miss Dunn and a party of young men and women went out in the country coon hunting in automobiles, and were going across Mr. Gault's place, near Murphyville, with several negro men in the lead, scaring up the coons.

Mr. Gault, thinking it a Halloween party planning to destroy his property, began firing at the hunters and ordering them from his place. At the second shot, a bullet struck Miss Dunn in the back, going through and imbedded itself in her breast. She was brought to this city where her wounds were dressed. The ball went through a red sweater, and it is said may prove fatal.

Gault gave himself up and is overwhelmed with grief.

Miss Dunn is a daughter of W. E. Dunn, president of the Citizens' National Bank of Noblesville. Mr. Dunn arrived here to-day.

SIMPLE FUNERAL FOR
THE VICE PRESIDENT

Utica, N. Y., Nov. 2.—In the presence of the President, members of the cabinet, Senate and House, diplomats, and men and women from every walk of life, final honors were paid to-day to James Schoolcraft Sherman, Vice President of the United States. In deference to the wishes expressed by Sherman before his death and the desire of the family, the funeral was simple and without ostentatious display. The public services in the First Presbyterian church were brief and the burial in Forest Hill cemetery followed.

Appreciates The Herald's Work
For the Children.

Editors Hartford Herald:—The readiness of The Herald to serve the cause of the needy child must and will commend it to all rightly constituted men and women. I heartily appreciate its aid, ever cheerfully given the West Ky. FOUR GENERATIONS IN ONE FAMILY FOR WILSON

Glasgow, Ky., Nov. 2.—Barren county can boast of what probably no other county in the State can, and that is four generations to vote at one time and one place. The four persons are Uncle Thomas Goodman, his son, grandson and great-grandson. The four Goodmans will ride together in the same vehicle to the polls Tuesday, November 5, and all will cast their ballots for Wilson and Marshall.

"Uncle Thomas," as he is called by his friends, is past ninety years of age, is a lifelong Democrat and has been in the hotel business for over fifty years. He is favorably known to the traveling men of Kentucky, Indiana and Tennessee.

No Race Suicide Here.

Franklin, Pa., Nov. 4.—Six children in a little over thirteen months is the remarkable birth record in the family of Stephen Mageotte, of Frenchtown. Mrs. Mageotte has borne fifteen children in twelve years, and thirteen of them are living. On September 10, 1911, she gave birth to triplets, two girls and a boy, and this week three sturdy boys arrived, thirteen months and three weeks after the other trio.

WOODROW WILSON. THOMAS RILEY MARSHALL.

A LANDSLIDE

For Wilson & Marshall in the Election Yesterday.

Bull Moose Got Caught in the Brambles
of Sweeping Democratic Vote.

Ohio County Democratic by from 500 to 600—Great Majorities for Democrats Everywhere.

Wilson Carries Enough States in Union
to Make His Election Overwhelming.

Everything points to a sweeping victory for the Democrats throughout the country yesterday. The Bull Moose seems to have been caught in the brambles of a Democratic landslide, and his destination at present is uncertain. President Taft made a poor race, and although backed by the powerful machinery of the Government, he failed to make a showing commensurate with his prestige and the limitless backing which seems to have been at his command. There is cheer and comfort for Democrats from almost every election report received. It was a day when the people came into their own, and the dawn of freedom from trust domination and control is at last breaking. The vote cast throughout the country, as a whole, was rather light, but people interested in good government were at the polls in force and manifested their sovereignty by the emphatic manner in which they exercised their suffrage. It is a victory of which every true American should be proud.

In Ohio county the Democrats won a sweeping victory, the vote standing as follows, with two precincts to hear from:

Wilson	2,309
Roosevelt	1,792
Taft	1,033
Debs	312
Prohibition	20
Socialist Labor	28
Johnson	2,310
Thompson	1,030
Bassett	1,790

In Grayson county the vote stood:

Wilson	1,678
Taft	1,066
Roosevelt	1,133
Johnson	1,680
Thompson	1,050
Bassett	1,145

This gave Wilson a plurality in Grayson county of 453.

Hancock county is as follows:

Wilson	742
Taft	252
Roosevelt	663

Muhlenberg county votes thus:

Wilson	2,079
Taft	1,029
Roosevelt	1,660

Butler county as follows:

Wilson	859
Taft	1,078
Roosevelt	978

At 10 o'clock Wilson had 287 electoral votes conceded; Taft, 266; Roosevelt, 29. Necessary to elect, 266.

In New York Wilson gets a majority of 150,000, and Indiana gives the New Jersey Governor a majority of 90,000. Maine is Democratic, but the majority is uncertain.

Kentucky is Democratic by 75,000, and ten out of eleven Congressmen are elected. Powers is defeated by the Progressive candidate in the Eleventh District. The city of Louisville is 500 to 600 for Wilson and Sherley (Dem.) is elected by a majority of 1,900.

Davless county gives Wilson 4,640, Roosevelt 1,862, Taft 1,703. Ben Johnson carries the Fourth District by over 9,000 plurality. He again carried every county in the District.

MRS. CLEVELAND GOING TO WED

A Professor of Archaeology
In April.

THOMAS PRESTON IS THE MAN

Wife of Former President
Will Wed Distinguished Personage.

BOTH NEARLY THE SAME AGE

New York, Oct. 31.—Mrs. Grover Cleveland, widow of the former President of the United States, is to be married next April to Prof. Thomas Preston, an honorary professor at Princeton University, and now occupying the chair of archaeology at Wells College, Aurora, N. Y., the institution attended by Mrs. Cleveland, then Frances Folsom.

Mrs. Cleveland was born July 21, 1864, and therefore is 48 years old. Although formal announcement has not been made and probably will not be made until after the death of Miss Esther Cleveland this winter, the fact of the engagement has been known for several days among the intimate friends of Mrs. Cleveland and Prof. Preston.

The second romance of the woman, who as the "bride of the White House," charmed a nation, and whose high character and devotion to her distinguished husband have been by example, a national influence toward high ideals of wifehood, is the outcome of an acquaintanceship of little more than a year's duration.

Mrs. Cleveland is a graduate of Wells College and has been a Trustee of that institution since 1887. Her wedding to Grover Cleveland, which took place in the executive mansion during his first administration, was one of the notable events in the history of the White House. Her father, Oscar Folsom, was a law partner of Mr. Cleveland, who upon Mr. Folsom's death, in 1875, became Frances Folsom's guardian.

After his retirement from the Presidency, Mr. Cleveland made his permanent home in Princeton and Mrs. Cleveland has continued to reside there since the former President died, in 1908. Her two daughters, Esther and Marion, and her son, Richard F., are living with her here.

The announcement of the engagement was made here by President Greer Hibben, of Princeton University, who said:

"Prof. Preston is 50 years old. He is a graduate of Princeton, and one whom we hold in very high esteem. As a young man he began his university studies at Columbia, which, however, were interrupted on account of illness. At that time he gave up the idea of completing his education, and went into business, in which he made a very rapid and notable success, establishing him at the head of a very prosperous manufacturing company in Newark, N. J.

"After securing a substantial fortune and feeling keenly that continued business success could not compensate for his abandoned college career, he determined to attain a long-desired end which his earlier years had denied him. Although nearing the age of 40 he nevertheless closed his active business career and went abroad to study for two years at the Sorbonne, Paris.

"Returning to America, he came to Princeton for two more years of additional study. On account of the wide range and unusual excellence of his work, both in undergraduate and graduate studies, he took at the same commencement not only the degree of Litt. B., but the degree of M. A. as well, a very unique attainment. He was also elected at that time to the Princeton chapter of the Phi Beta Kappa Society.

"Prof. Preston was exceedingly popular and made many friends while at Princeton. He was subsequently appointed Fellow of the American School of Classical Study at Rome, and later won in a competition open to all universities of the United States, the Fellowship of the Archaeological Institute of America. After pursuing his studies abroad he returned to Princeton and took his degree of Doctor of Philosophy. He was then called to his present professorship at Wells College."

J. G. Williams, of disease, incident to old age. She was 82 years old. She was one of the constituent members of West Providence Baptist Church, which was organized in 1853. The only one other survivor is Mrs. Mahala Rowe, Palo Pinto, Texas. She was a member of the Baptist Church here at the time of her death, and was laid away here beside her husband, the late D. J. Wilcox, who preceded her more than a year ago. Funeral services were conducted by Elder H. F. Jenkins of Owensboro. Three sons and two daughters survive her.

MOTHER'S TEARFUL PLEA FOR HER DAUGHTER FAILS

Chicago, Oct. 31.—A mother's tearful plea for her daughter, lost through misfortune, failed to overcome the love the girl had developed for a kind foster mother when the two forces were matched in the County Court here to-day, and Mrs. Lena W. Mapplin went back home to Hot Springs, Ark., disappointed and broken-hearted.

Mrs. Helena Mildner, who has reared little Anna, daughter of Mrs. Mapplin by a former marriage, since the child was forced from its mother through the latter's adversity, retained the custody of the girl in a legal fight. Judge Owens left the decision with the child.

"I don't know my real mamma," said the girl. "Mrs. Mildner is so good to me, I want her as a mamma."

The Court allowed the decision to stand.

THE VIEWS OF VICTOR BERGER

On Socialism — Why He Believes In It.

THE COLLECTIVE OWNERSHIP

Of All Social Means of Production and Distribution the Plan.

SOCIALISM IN A NUTSHELL

In the November American Magazine appears an article entitled "The Progressive's Dilemma." In it the fact is brought out that all the candidates this fall are making a bid for the progressive vote. Authorized statements appear from leading progressives who give their reasons for voting as they intend to. Jane Addams and Herbert Croly write in behalf of Roosevelt. Herbert Quick tells why he is going to vote for Wilson, Senator Charles E. Townsend, of Michigan, explains his preference for Taft. Victor L. Berger, the first Socialist who ever sat in Congress, tells why he is for Debs. Following is an extract from his article:

"Why am I going to vote for Debs? As good a man as Eugene V. Debs is, I am not going to vote for him in the sense one is voting for Wilson, Taft or Roosevelt—I simply vote the ticket of the Socialist party. I have no hope that the Socialist party will elect its candidate for President in this election. With us the Socialist movement and its principles are paramount—not the candidate.

"The Socialist party stands for the collective ownership of all the social means of production and distribution in the interest of the whole people.

"Socialists say that this step is the necessary and natural outcome of the concentration of wealth and of the development of capitalism.

"Antagonists of Socialism in the past claimed that collective ownership of an industry was impossible because the personal supervision and control of the owner was absolutely necessary to the success of any enterprise.

"To-day we see that the greatest undertakings are those in which the stockholders and owners have nothing to do with the management of affairs and are only drawing dividends.

"In all our large industries, concerns—stock companies, railroads and trusts—business is managed and carried on by a few paid officials. These men might just as well be paid by the State, or the nation (as the case may be), to carry on the enterprise in the interest of the people, as paid by a few wealthy men, to carry it on for their individual profit.

"Moreover, we find that whenever the nation, State or community has undertaken to own and manage any large industry, railroad, mine, factory, telegraph, telephone, mill, or canal, etc., this invariably redounded to the benefit of the commonwealth—the inherent weakness of our political spoils system, notwithstanding.

"This idea, carried out gradually and logically, involves a complete change of our economic and political system.

"Political equality under the present system is a snare and delusion. The wage worker who depends upon a master or upon the master class for an opportunity to make a living is not on terms of equality with his master.

"Political liberty and economic despotism are incompatible.

"The Socialist party proposes to supplement our political democracy by industrial democracy.

"No one dreams of abolishing private property. On the contrary, we propose to secure private property to every citizen, to the many million men and women who under the present system have no chance of ever having any. Productive capital only is to be owned in common, by the nation, the State or the municipality, as the exigencies of the case may require. Business will be carried on for use and not for profit. This is the case now in the post-office, water works, public school, etc., wherever owned and managed by the people.

"Such is the aim of the Socialist party."

site where Christ "suffered, was buried and rose again," more blood has been shed than for any other. An immense number of lives were laid down during the Crusades; and for 600 years before the Crusades, and even to the present time, a constant stream of pilgrims has poured into Jerusalem to worship at the spot made sacred by the crucifixion of Christ.

From the fourth century after Christ until fifty years ago, this site was generally conceded to be within the Church of the Holy Sepulcher. Now two sites dispute the claim of being the actual Golgotha. The latter claimant is known as "Gordon's Calvary," though to an American, Dr. Harlan P. Beech, of Yale University, is due the actual discovery of it; Gen. Gordon, the hero of Khartoum, having first secured for it general recognition. — [The Christian Herald.

HERE'S THE RIGHT KIND OF RAILROAD PRESIDENT

Col. L. J. Irwin, President and General Manager of the Henderson Route, was here Friday on an inspection tour. He said he found things looking good here, and he wanted them to look better. Col. Irwin takes great pride in his road. He looks after every little detail, from the laying of a tie to the building of an engine, and he knows when the work is being done right. He is striving to make the Henderson Route one of the best roads in the country and he will do it. He not only looks after the interests of his road but its patrons and the farmers along his line. He wants to see them prosper, and he is helping them in more ways than one. He says his road can't prosper unless the farmer and business men prosper and he is willing to help them. He says what is needed in Breckenridge county is better country roads and more up-to-date methods of farming. — [Breckenridge News.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years it was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven catarrh to be a constitutional disease and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials.

JERUSALEM IS GROWING FAST

Population Increased from 10,000 to 90,000

IN THE PAST THIRTY YEARS

Plans to Establish Suburban Colonies Are Meeting With Success.

LAND THERE IS SELLING HIGH

Jerusalem is growing rapidly, and several movements are on foot, in addition to those begun by Nathan Strauss, the philanthropist of this city, and others for the amelioration of the living conditions of the Jews there.

According to a report made to the Department of Commerce and Labor the population of Jerusalem, particularly the Jewish part, has grown remarkably, and chiefly in the last 30 years, increasing in that period from 10,000 to not less than 50,000 out of a total population of between 80,000 and 100,000.

"The Jewish quarter within the walled city," continues the report, "has long been crowded, and the new arrivals from Russia and Galicia, Bohemia and Yemen, Persia and Morocco spread over the outskirts of the city, mainly to suburbs to the northwest, off the Jaffa road. Sir Moses Montefiore, the Anglo-Jewish philanthropist of the nineteenth century, did much for the amelioration of the housing conditions of the Jewish population of Jerusalem. In his honor a testimonial fund of about $50,000 was collected in England, which has been employed in continuation of the work he inaugurated.

"The money is used to make advances to local building societies on condition of the members of the societies finding part of the cost and submitting their building plans for approval to representatives of the committee. The advances are repayable without interest in 10 years from completion of the scheme, and the money is then again advanced for a fresh enterprise. In this way five suburban colonies have been erected, each containing 50 to 70 houses; in the newest of them the minimum amount spent on each dwelling was $1,000. The construction throughout is neat and substantial, though, owing to the remarkable rise in the price of land near the city, the site on which the colony is built cost four times as much per square yard as that of the other settlements. More space has been allowed for the roads and trees have been planted along them.

"Other religious denominations have erected immense buildings around Jerusalem, such as the Orthodox Greek convents on the Jaffa road and the Mount of Olives, the Roman Catholic orphanage, and the German Protestant institutions by the Damascus Gate and on the northern heights. But they have not done anything considerable for the improvement of housing or the good laying out of suburbs. The result is that between the abundance of great stone churches and institutes there are rows of wretched slums. A few wealthy Bakhara Jews have built line mansions, but there are few rich members among Jerusalem, and few who can afford to build for themselves a decent house.

"The project has, therefore, been mooted in England of forming a small garden suburb outside Jerusalem in which the houses could be let to the better class artisans who can afford to pay a rent of $40 to $50 a year. The idea of garden suburbs has achieved striking popularity in England and Germany, and it is recognized as offering the best solution for the housing problem of the large industrial cities of our time, and at the same time as fostering the love of the land and of nature which the modern concentration of the population in towns has threatened. At some little distance from Jerusalem land can still be purchased fairly cheaply, and it is calculated that a substantial little house with half an acre could be provided for about $1,000. The garden space could be planted with figs and olives and garden produce, for which there is a ready market in the city, and thus the tenant would be able to make a little income by the care of his land. The houses would be laid out according to a plan which would preserve the natural beauty of the site, and the supervision of the dwellings and the upkeep of roads and common buildings would be in the hands of a local committee. Communication with the city would be established by a diligence or bus, unless the tramway concession, of which so much has been heard, materializes, in which case the line might be brought out to the suburb."—[New York Times.

VICE PRESIDENT SHERMAN DIES

Members of Family Witness Final Scene.

COMMITTEE MEETING CALLED

To Take Action in Filling Vacancy—No Inconvenience to Voters.

PROMINENT MEN MENTIONED

Utica, N. Y., Oct. 30.—After a long illness Vice President James Schoolcraft Sherman died at his home in this city at 9:42 o'clock to-night of uremic poison caused by Bright's disease.

He had been sinking since early morning, and it was realized that death was a question of only a few hours.

There was slight relief shortly after 7 o'clock, caused by an apparent improvement in the condition of the kidneys, but it did not prove real or lasting, and at best gave only temporary hope.

At 9 o'clock the patient's temperature rose to 106. From that time his condition rapidly passed from bad to worse until the end. Mr. Sherman was unconscious when the end came, and had been in that condition for hours.

Soon after Mr. Sherman's death Dr. Fayette H. Peck, the attending physician, issued the following statement:

"The Vice President died at 9:42 p. m. without regaining consciousness for a moment. He was perfectly quiet. He died in the presence of his wife, her brother and sister, his two brothers and his three sons and their wives. He had been entirely unconscious since 7 o'clock, when he had a period of partial consciousness lasting for about fifteen minutes. He died in a uremic coma as a result of Bright's disease, heart disease and arterio sclerosis."

Calls Committee Meeting.

New York, Oct. 31.—Chairman Hillis, of the Republican National Committee, shortly before 1 o'clock this morning announced that he had called a meeting of the National Committee for November 12 in Chicago to select a successor to the late James S. Sherman as the Republican candidate for Vice President.

Mr. Hillis made the following announcement:

"The national convention which met in Chicago in June delegated to the National Committee power to fill vacancies on the national ticket. The death of Mr. Sherman, candidate of the Republican party for Vice President, makes it incumbent upon the National Committee to nominate a candidate in his place. The nomination, however, cannot possibly be made prior to the election next Tuesday. Such a nomination can properly be made only after due and reasonable notice to all the members of the committee, and such notice cannot be given in less than six days. It is therefore manifestly impossible to hold such a meeting prior to the election. Meantime, no difficulty or inconvenience arises to the voters at the election next Tuesday, because the votes to be cast then are for electors and not for candidates for either President or Vice President, and the death of Mr. Sherman, therefore, does not affect the validity of the election of the electors.

"I have called a meeting of the National Committee to meet upon the twelfth day of November in the city of Chicago at the Auditorium Hotel at 12 o'clock noon to select a successor to the late James S. Sherman as candidate of the Republican party for Vice President of the United States."

Already there has been discussion of the availability of Gov. Hadley, Gov. Deneen, Senator Borah, Senator Cummins, Senator La Follette, former Vice President Fairbanks, Senator Root, Senator Burton, Senator Lodge, Gov. Goldsborough and others.

A FARM RENTED FOR FIVE YEARS FOR $25,000

There are persons in cities—many of them—who regard a farm as a place to go when you have money enough to spend in good living, and when you can afford to own property at an annual loss. But here in Franklin county a farm of 742 acres leased the other day for five years for $25,000. Think of it.

YOU MUST SOW

Before You Can Reap

You might as well try to make farming pay without sowing seed as try to make a mercantile business pay without advertising.

In Your Home Paper.

An annual rental of $5,000 for a farm of 742 acres to be used for farming purposes. The lessees must get that much out of it before they make a cent for themselves. Few kinds of investments are as solid as investments in fertile farming land. And at such rentals, the Todd place is paying about as handsome returns as any kind of investment, yet promising returns to the renters.—[Franklin Journal.

A Society Game.

"How did the poker game come out at your girl's house?" "I was nearly killed. I held four aces while the old man held a pair of aces. He won."

"Why, how's that?"

"He had them on his feet."

Dan J. Joyce, Sanville, Henry county, Virginia, says: "I took a cold with a cough which hung on for two years. Then I commenced using Foley's Honey & Tar Compound and the cough finally left me and now I am perfectly strong and well." Is best and safest for children and contains no opiates. All dealers.

Don't despise the little things, but at the same time, the bigger the fish the less necessity there is for lying about it.

SYMPTOMS OF CONSUMPTION

Yield to Vinol.

The medical profession do not believe that consumption is inherited, but a person may inherit a weakness or tendency to that disease.

A prominent citizen of Evansville, Ind., writes: "I was ill for five months with pulmonary trouble, and had the best of doctors; I had hemorrhages and was in a very bad way. Through the advice of a friend I tried Vinol, and I feel that it saved my life. It is all you recommend it to be. I believe it is the greatest medicine on earth. I have advised others to try Vinol, and they have had the same results." (Name furnished on request.)

Vinol soothes and heals the inflamed surfaces and allays the cough. Vinol creates an appetite, strengthens the digestive organs and gives the patient strength to throw off incipient pulmonary diseases.

Try a bottle of Vinol with the understanding that your money will be returned if it does not help you. For Sale by James H. Williams, Drugist, Hartford, Ky.

Couldn't Walk!

"I used to be troubled with a weakness peculiar to women," writes Mrs. Anna Jones, of Kenny, Ill. "For nearly a year, I could not walk, without holding my sides. I tried several different doctors, but I grew worse. Finally, our druggist advised Cardui for my complaint. I was so thin, my weight was 115. Now, I weigh 163, and I am never sick. I ride horseback as good as ever. I am in fine health at 52 years."

TAKE CARDUI The Woman's Tonic

We have thousands of such letters, and more are arriving daily. Such earnest testimony from those who have tried it, surely proves the great value of this vegetable, tonic medicine, for women.

Cardui relieves women's sufferings, and builds weak women up to health and strength. If you are a woman, give it a trial. It should help you, for it has helped a million others. It is made from pure, harmless, herb ingredients, which act promptly and surely on the womanly organs. It is a good tonic. Try it! Your druggist sells it.

FRANK L. FELIX, Pub. and Prop'r.

Entered at the Hartford post-office
as mail matter of the second class.

Good morning! How does the election news suit you, anyhow?

They are having quite a critical time over in Turkey just now,
which reminds us that the turkey
here in this country are nearing a crisis in their existence.

There is lots of truth and a little bit of poetry in the following:
"The thousand times that you were right won't pay you any song; but they'll remember day and night the one time you were wrong."

Indications now point to a warm race for U. S. Senator in this State next year. The new Kentucky Primary law, however, will govern
the matter, and this will probably deprive it of the odium of former years.

Gen. U. S. Grant's picture will adorn the new issue of ten-thousand-dollar bills. But if you really want to see a likeness of the General, better turn up an old picture,
as these new ones will hardly be pleasing hereabouts.

The prayers of several cities have been decreed knocking out "tax"
days and others will probably follow. Still this custom is abolished.
It may seem hard on some churches,
for some and other organizations
that adopt this means to collect money, but the great public will hail the movement with delight.
The "tax" day has gotten to be a nuisance, as to one escapes from this present botheration who ever wants a day where it is in progress.

The Haverhill Clinton gives an account of the first who ever constructed a Haverhill country. If there is one in Ohio county we have not heard of. They are a splendid convenience, almost a necessity, for any large farm and will pay for the cost of construction in the amount of green forage saved in a few years. These are times when the farm increases his chances for order to succeed, and every new utility and convenience added to the farm increases the chances for success.

Sensational evangelism is being denounced at almost every religious gathering nowadays. It is a good move in the right direction.
There is nothing about religion to call for questionable methods for its propagation. True religion and undefined vaunts not itself, nor does it seek to arouse curiosity and excitement among people in order to properly establish itself. When our Saviour performed a wonderful cure, He generally told the healed party to "go and tell no one." His followers should be like Him in simple appeal.

There have been few autumns
that afforded the wealth of beautiful tree foliage that is exhibited in the present one. Basking in the glint of a fast approaching winter's sunshine, the woods are resplendent in their colors of red and brown and gold, and the haze of a dying Indian summer lends its enchanting spell to the beautiful scene. The leaves are fast releasing their hold on the mother branch, and their wealth of foliage glory will soon
sink into old earth, to give sustenance to a new generation of like kind, which will come when the dreary winter is past and the birds
announce the arrival of spring.

INCOME TAX RATIFIED BY THIRTY-TWO STATES

Washington, Nov. 4.—Thirty-two States have notified Secretary Knox
of their ratification of the proposed income tax amendment to the Federal Constitution, and four have notified the State Department of their rejection. To become effective, thirty-six States—three-fourths of those in the Union—must ratify.
Those which have not notified
the Department of ratification of rejection are Delaware, Florida, Louisiana, Massachusetts, New Jersey, New Mexico, Ohio, Pennsylvania, Vermont, Virginia, West Virginia and Wyoming.

Connecticut, New Hampshire,
Rhode Island and Utah have notified of rejection.

The last favorable report was received from Minnesota on June 12.

SEVEN-YEAR ENLISTMENT HAS BECOME EFFECTIVE

The act of Congress providing for a seven-year term of enlistment
instead of a three-year term, in the United States army, went into effect last week. All persons desiring to enlist will be compelled to serve seven years; that is, they are supposed to enlist for seven years,

but four, however, are spent in actual service and the other three are spent on a furlough and the soldier becomes a member of a reserve which can be called out at any time.

This would only be done in the case of war, when a large number of men would be needed, and in that case private citizens could be called also, thus making in reality
only one more year of service than formerly. This will not make any material difference in the number of men enlisting, as those really desire of entering the service will not object to the extra year. The object of the three years on the reserve force is for the purpose of having a reserve which has had military training.

FINED FOR NOT SENDING HIS CHILDREN TO SCHOOL

After due trial a man was fined five dollars and costs in Judge Hogge's court on Monday last for failure and refusing to send his children to the public school. A full account of the case is in the school department of the News this week. So far as can be learned, this is the first case of the kind to be tried in the county this season,
and it is sincerely hoped there will never be another. Illiteracy in this State is to be ashamed of, and the people should use every possible effort to aid those who are endeavoring to educate the children. It costs parents nothing to send their children to the public schools, but ignorance costs the people much.

School officials are seriously interested in the matter of compelling attendance, and those who persist in permitting their children to run at large like so many animals, or to remain in ignorance at home, would better take heed.—[Big Sandy

FORGIVENESS EXPECTED BY SCHRANK FROM TEDDY

Milwaukee, Wis., Nov. 4.—Believing that Theodore Roosevelt
does not bear malice toward him, John Schrank, would-be slayer of the Colonel, expects to escape with a light sentence.

Schrank confided these expectations to Bernard H. Gottschalk, who occupies a cell near that of the notorious prisoner. Gottschalk is a former resident of New York.

"Theodore Roosevelt is only human after all," Schrank said, according to Gottschalk. "He was shot and has recovered. Now that it is all over and he has had time for reflection, his better self surely has concluded that I should be pitied and not condemned. When Mc-Kinley was shot he showed forgiveness."

"The entire case rests with Roosevelt. I know if he will come here and speak for me, and adopt a broad view of the matter, I will get a light sentence. His word will settle the whole matter. I should think he would come here when the case is tried."

QUEER FATE ATTENDED OUR VICE PRESIDENTS

Four Have Died in November
—Total Seven With Death
of Sherman.

Washington, Nov. 4.—James S.
Sherman is the seventh Vice-President to die in office. Of the six deaths already on record four occurred in November.

The first was George Clinton, of
New York, who died April 20, 1812, when 73 years old. The others were Elbridge Gerry, of Massachusetts, November 23, 1814, at the age of 70; William R. King, of Alabama, April 18, 1853, at the age of 67; Henry Wilson, of Massachusetts, November 22, 1876, at the age of 63; Thomas A. Hendricks, of Indiana, November 25, 1885, at the age of 66, and Garrett A. Hobart, of New Jersey, November 21, 1899, at the age of 55.

William R. King took the oath of office in Cuba, where he had gone on account of ill health. He never presided over the Senate. Clinton, Gerry and Wilson died in Washington, and Clinton and Gerry were buried in the Congressional cemetery.

King was buried in Dallas county, Alabama; Hendricks in Indianapolis, and Hobart in Patterson, N.
J.

Only four Vice Presidents of the United States were afterward elected to the Presidency. They were John Adams, Thomas Jefferson,
Martin Van Buren and Theodore Roosevelt. Five have succeeded to the Presidency through the death of the Chief Executive. These were John Tyler, Millard Fillmore, Andrew Johnson, Chester A. Arthur and Theodore Roosevelt.

"FATHER" JOHN RUSSELL, NOTED CHARACTER, DEAD

Detroit, Nov. 4.—"Father" John Russell, founder of the Prohibition party and the oldest Methodist preacher in the Detroit conference,
is dead at the home of his daughter in Livingston county, N. Y., in 1822.

"Father" Russell co-operated with most of the leading prohibition organizations during his life,
such as the Sons of Temperance and the Good Templars; was twice
at the head of the Order of Good Templars of the World and presided at the first session of the order
ever held in England.

He wrote the first articles and made the first public speeches in favor of the organization of an independent political party on the issue of prohibition. He wrote the call for the first National Convention at which the party was organized in Chicago, and was the party's first candidate for the Vice Presidency, in 1872. For years he was the recognized leader of the Prohibition forces of the country.

Married.

Rockport, Ky., Nov. 5, 1912.
On last Sunday at 10 o'clock at the beautiful home of Mr. and Mrs.
Estill Wilcox, near Echols, Ky., their only daughter, Miss Beulah Wilcox, was united in matrimony
to Mr. Virgil Brown, in the presence of quite a number of their relatives and friends.

The marriage ceremony was performed by Rev. Birch Shields, of Rockport, Ky., in his own pleasant way. Both of these young people professed religion under the ministry of Rev. Shields and were happily by him into the fellowship of Pond Run Missionary Baptist church, near Echols. May the blessings of an all-wise God rest upon each of them as they journey through life, is the wish of their pastor and numerous friends.

FRANCIS SCREAMS TELL OF A DOUBLE TRAGEDY

Masontown, Penn., Nov. 4.—
While John C. Sharpnack, liveryman and horse owner and prominent in this part of the State, slept
at his home this morning, his wife
crept to the bed and sent a bullet
from a revolver through his head, killing him instantly. Her nine-
year-old son, aroused by the sound of the shot, leaped from his bed
and ran toward his mother, who still stood over the form of her husband with the smoking revolver in her hand.

When the child screamed, Mrs.
Sharpnack reached out, took him in her arms, kissed him several times,
then, with the little fellow still held in one arm, and while seated on the bed beside the body of her dead husband, she turned the revolver on herself and pulled the trigger.

She fell back on the bed dead, a bullet in her brain. The son ran screaming from the room to tell other members of the family, who had heard the shots, of the tragedy.

No cause for the woman's act can be given by the family.

Mrs. Sharpnack was prominent in social circles. Before retiring Saturday night she seemed to be in the best of spirits. The couple always had lived happily together, it is said.

Mr. Fleener's House Burned.

Mr. B. F. Fleener, of Borah's Ferry, this county, lost his residence
by fire on last Saturday evening about 7 o'clock. The fire is supposed to have caught from a match ignited by a mouse. All the family except Mr. and Mrs. Fleener had gone to prayer meeting. The old folks were in the sitting room and scented the smoke entering from the kitchen and ran in and the fire had caught from the flames from a sugar box setting under the foot of a bed. When the feather bed was lifted the flames spread very rapidly and came near suffocating both Mr. and Mrs. Fleener before they could get out of the room. Mr.
Fleener's hair was considerably scorched. However the alarm of fire soon brought in the near neighbors and most of the household goods were saved. Loss about $1, 500. Insurance, $500.

Mrs. R. B. Martin and sister,
and B. H. Crabtree, Beaver Dam, went out to see their parents Sunday.

MINISTER CHARGED WITH LURING GIRL FROM HOME

Evansville, Ind., Nov. 4.—The Rev. William F. Dunn, of Granite
City, Ill., is under arrest here
charged with luring Essell Mickell, 18, to this city.

Miss Mickell sang in the choir of the Rev. Mr. Dunn's church. He paid her much attention, and three weeks ago they disappeared from home, according to Mrs. Dunn, who traced them here. The minister begged the officers to let him return home to his wife and baby. The girl avowed her love for the minister, who is 44 years old. County authorities say the Rev. Mr. Dunn may be turned over to the Federal authorities on a white slave charge.

BENNETTS.

Nov. 4.—The death angel visited the home of Mr. Frank Maples and took from him his dear wife. She leaves a husband, one child and a host of friends to mourn her loss.
We only regret that we cannot call
Ethel back, but God knows best.

Rev. Burton filled his regular appointment at Hamlin Chapel Sunday.

Miss Edna Black, East Hartford,
visited her sister, Mrs. Alfred Wallace, from Thursday until Sunday.
Mr. Walter Campbell, wife and sister, of Hartford, attended church
at this place Sunday.

Mrs. Tom Wallace, who has been very ill at the residence of her daughter, Mrs. Davis Royal, of Fordsville, was reported no better
at the last account.

ONE OF THE MYSTERIES OF LIFE'S VICISSITUDES

Nothing in the awful mystery of life and death is more inexplicable
than the widening contrasts of human fortune. Why should one child be brought into the world to wealth, dignity and honor, and another child to squalor, penury of crime? Can these disparities of condition be mended through the political fabric? If we could place a man in the Presidency for life, invested with all the powers
needful to a wise and benevolent absolution, could he change to any appreciable degree the existing order? Could he remotely reach the disease of sin and sloth, of greed and graft, of poverty and wealth, so as to give the halt, the lame and the blind some chance against the healthy, the energetic and gifted?

Patriotism and Love of Country

Can scarcely be expected of children reared by homeless parents with no more serious thought than the present. "Just as the twig is bent, the tree's inclined," and as more recent writers have said, "The home is the backbone of our nation," it behooves all lovers of life, liberty and happiness, and particularly those directing the footsteps of the youth of our country to set a good example. To do this it is not necessary to build a palace and go in debt for life.
Wood construction will just meet your requirements.
With it you can plan a home of any size you may ultimately desire and then start with a few rooms and build on as your demands require. We have helped many people solve their building problems and would like to help you. Come in and let's talk it over or write for prices.

TOBACCO BUYERS ARE NOW ARRANGING PLANS

For Inspection of Samples—
Meeting To Be Held Wednesday Morning.

The Owensboro Messenger of Sunday says:

There will be a meeting of the sales committee of the Equity Home Warehouse company at the headquarters on Third street on Wednesday morning, at which time
the samples will be inspected and it is expected that prices will be fixed on them.

The samples for the Green River Tobacco Growers' Association have been made up and have been on exhibition at the association headquarters for the past few days,
where they have been inspected by a number of the buyers from the city and the district. No prices have been fixed on the crop and it is understood that no offers have been made by the buyers.

As in former years, the action of any committee in effecting a sale with any of the buyers will have to be ratified by the growers in their meetings, before the deal is finally closed. It is stated by the tobacco people that they expect that the sale will be quickly effected following the election and they are also of the opinion that liberal prices will be obtained for the weed.

Thomas Gallagher, of Ireland,
arrived in Owensboro Friday night
and will make the place his headquarters for the next month, during which time he will look over the operations of his plants here and at Henderson and will make a study of the tobacco crop conditions for the year.

Mr. A. S. Bennett, Secretary of the State Republican Executive Committee, passed through Hartford yesterday en route to Louisville, having come home to vote.

Mr. McHenry Holbrook, who had been spending a few days with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Rowan Holbrook, returned to State University, Lexington, yesterday afternoon.

Mr. Wayne S. Rock, Hartford, Route 2, left for Mattoon, Ill., last Monday where he went to seek employment as a clerk in a grocery establishment. Wayne has relatives in Mattoon and Chicago.

Mr. W. T. Rolph, formerly of Louisville, who was well known in Hartford some years ago and whose son married Miss Isabel McHenry, died at his residence in Philadelphia last Wednesday, after a brief illness. His remains were interred in Cave Hill Cemetery, Louisville.

Miss Violet Barnard, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Monnie Barnard, route 3, and Mr. Perry Crane, of Butler, Ky., son of Rev. Crane, who was formerly pastor of the Noreek church, were married at the bride's home Thursday morning at 9 o'clock, Rev. Eli Wesley officiating.

Attorney General James Garnett spoke at the court house here last Friday afternoon to a large and appreciative audience. His speech was well received and much applauded and was one of the best delivered here in recent years. Mr. Garnett is an orator of much ability and there can be no doubt that his speech here established his party men in the faith and won many votes for the Democratic ticket.

Hon. Ed Morrow, nephew of ex-Gov. Bradley and one of the best Republican orators on the stump in Kentucky, spoke at the court house here Saturday to a good sized audience. He handed it to the Bull Moose crowd all right and also—as was expected—to the Democrats. His speech was of the regular stereotyped order, but it was said much applauded, and it was said that he won a number of votes for the Taft ticket by his persuasive eloquence.

An account in the Breckenridge News last week says that Mr. Ernest Haswell, who recently visited his aunt, Mrs. Jennie T. McHenry, here, has arrived safely in Brussels, France, and has matriculated in the Royale Academie de Beaux Arts of Brussels. He is the only American besides young Cole, son of Timothy Cole, the engineer, to enter the institution. Young Haswell is a splendid sculptor and will no doubt make his mark in his chosen profession. His home is in Hardsburg.

The Bellharz Entertainers held forth at Dr. Bean's Opera House last Saturday night under the auspices of the Hartford College Lyceum Course. A large crowd greeted just about the best entertainment given here yet. Mr. Bellharz is a whole show in himself and his wife is a very able assistant. As an impersonator of different characters, it would be hard to imagine his equal. Mrs. Bellharz has a sweet and highly cultured voice and her singing was splendid. The two are possessed of various accomplishments which transform them into entertainers of the highest class.

M. H. Combs and Geo. W. Hickey made a novel wager. If Roosevelt is elected, Combs is to go into a hole under Hickey's store and stay one day. If Wilson is elected, Hickey is to go into the hole and stay one day. On the other hand, if Taft is elected, they are both to go into the hole and stay one day. The hole was prepared and the wager made some days since. Messrs. Combs and Hickey live at Dukehurst, five miles northeast of Hartford, on the M., H. & E. R. R.

Birthday Dinner.

On Sunday, November 3d, a surprise birthday dinner was given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Robertson in honor of their father, Mr. Thomas Williams. It being his eightieth birthday. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Williams and son Douglas, Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Hatcher and family, Mr. and Mrs. T. P. Williams and family, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Wallace and family. All present report a good time.

New Oil Well.

The Rough River Oil & Gas Co., composed of local people, through its president, M. L. Heavrin, closed a deal with Messrs. Henderson & Snyder, of Lawrenceville, Ill., to put down a well on the S. J. Weller land, the oil right to which is owned by the said Rough River Oil & Gas Co.

The Rough River Oil & Gas Co.'s stock is owned solely by local people and is distributed largely among the farmers whose lands it leased.

Work on the well will begin at once.

FORMER HARTFORD MEN SEEM TO "GET IN BAD"

The Louisville Post of Saturday contains the following: The Forman men mentioned being the same who formerly were in the boat business between here and Evansville:

Accusations of illegal practice of medicine are embraced in twenty indictments returned by the grand jury against X.W. Wittman, George W. Forman, W. M. Forman and Miss Frances Holst, who were taken in custody Friday afternoon by Special Detectives Frank Carroll and Marvin Hart at offices on the seventh floor of the Realty building.

Judge Gregory fixed the bond at $500 for each and was informed that surety could be given.

In eleven indictments the Advanced Medical Institute, "alias the Advanced Medical Science Institution, alias the Advanced Medical Company," is named, as well as the four individuals. Nine indictments name the individuals and the Delish-Eits Manufacturing Company. Among the accusations in the indictments are those to the effect that the persons and concerns named are not licensed, and the concerns had not been incorporated.

Died Suddenly.

Mrs. Frank Maples, who lived between Hartford and Horton, died very suddenly Wednesday night. She awakened her husband in the night, and was suffering agonies. LEFT A RECIPE FOR LONG LIFE

Which Would Be Rather Hard to Follow.

MAN COULD LIVE 400 YEARS

Under His Treatment, Says
This Savant, a Noted
Paris Physician.

PLAN RECALLS METHUSELAH

Among the many philosophers who have given to the world secrets by which human life might be prolonged was Arnold de Villeneuve, a noted physician of Paris, who was connected with the university of that city.

After gaining fame in France he went to Italy, where he passed 20 important years of his life and where he devoted himself to the study of astrology and alchemy.

According to the stories of his day, he made vast quantities of gold out of lead and copper, and just escaped being arrested and put to death as a sorcerer. His fame as a physician gave importance to all that Villeneuve did and said, but when he predicted the end of the world upon a certain date and nothing happened, there was somewhat of a change in his popularity.

His recipe for prolonging life were most curious, and one has been preserved, and is as follows:

"The person wishing to keep alive for 300 or 400 years must thoroughly rub his body three times a week with the juice of cassia. When he retires to bed each night he must put over his head a plaster made of saffron, red rose leaves, sandal wood, aloes and amber. Upon this mixture there must be poured some oil of roses and melted wax, the whole then spread as a plaster. In the morning this must all be carefully removed, put in a box of lead and kept for use the next night.

"The food of the man must be looked after in this wise: If he has a temperament that leads him to look on the bright side of things, he must keep 16 chickens in a yard where there is absolutely pure air and good water, and is to eat one each day. If he has a rather dull and matter of fact temperament, he must keep 25 chickens in his yard; if he is of melancholy cast of mind and looks on the dark side of life the number of birds must be exactly 30, but in any event one a day must be eaten.

"The chickens are so treated that their flesh gains the qualities that will prolong the life of him who eats them. They are to be kept without food till in a famishing condition, and then fed upon broth that is to be made of serpents cooked in vinegar and thickened with bran. For two months they eat this and are then fit for the table. The drink allowed in this diet is either white wine or a simple claret.

"By following this rule strictly for two months after the passing of every seven years, a man may become the rival of Methuseiah himself."

Flagged Train With Shirt.
Tearing his shirt from his back an Ohio man flagged a train and saved it from a wreck, but H. T. Alston, Raleigh, N. C., once prevented a wreck with Electric Bitters. "I was in a terrible plight when I began to use them," he writes, "my stomach, head, back and kidneys were all badly affected and my liver was in bad condition, but four bottles of Electric Bitters made me feel like a new man." A trial will convince you of their matchless merit for any stomach, liver or kidney trouble. Price 50 cents at James H. Williams.

TABLE FOR ADVERTISERS

—A GOOSE'S PHILOSOPHY

Simeon Ford, the noted humorist, said in praise of newspaper advertising at a banquet in New York:

"There is a fable that all advertisers should have by heart. It runs like this:

"As a storekeeper dozed, his head on the dusty counter of his shop, the gray cobwebs across his door were rent apart, and a goose entered.

"The shopkeeper arose with a glad smile; he thought he had a customer; but when he saw the goose he muttered on oath.

"What do you want here?" he said. "This is no place for geese."

"Isn't it?" said the goose. "Quack, quack!" And it regarded the shopkeeper derisively, then went on:

"I've come, my dear sir, because I saw your advertisement on the fence that incloses our barnyard. I knew that you must be a goose—or else a donkey—because otherwise you would place your advertisement in a newspaper, where it would be read by human beings, and not upon an isolated fence, where it is only read by donkeys and geese and other barnyard denizens. So, being lonely to-day, I thought I'd make a fraternal call. A couple of donks will probably drop in later. Quack, quack!"

NO GOD?

We think too lightly—that is, those of us who think. What a shocking and terrible incident it was that occurred within a few days of Lawrence, Mass.: A clamorous mob, proclaiming themselves to be the guardians of the people's interests, marched through the streets bearing a banner inscribed: "Arise, slaves of the world! No God, no master! One for all and all for one!"

No God? This is a land of liberty and God-given happiness! This at a time when the toll of our harvests is the greatest that we have ever had, reaching such colossal figures that all the world stands in awe and envy!

No God? This is a land where wages are the highest and the work the most plentiful, education the freest and opportunity for advancement the grandest in all the world! This is a land where the millions of to-day were the poor boys of a few years ago, where the humblest citizen can aspire to the highest office, and where life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness are the common heritage of all.

Shall strong men and women of this nation not arise and stem this restless tide of discontent? Shall the churches not awaken to unite in overcoming the frenzied forces of anarchy that drip with blood? Have the business men nothing to think of but business? If so, they will suffer a rude awakening.

Have that great mass of toilers on the farm, in the shop and factory—those who would protect their homes, who love their children, who trust their God—nothing to do but look on, while the mighty forces of evil—knife, revolver and torch in hand—continue their dreadful warfare against the established institutions of the country, against constituted authority, against judicial supremacy and against the religion of Almighty God?

"Our Fathers' God! to Thee, Author of liberty, To Thee we sing:
Long may our land be bright,
With freedom's holy light,
Protect us by Thy might,
Great God, our King."

GOOD MONEY MADE ON A FEW ACRES OF LAND

What An Ohio Farmer is Getting Out of a Twenty-Five Acre Tract.

Following is an extract from an article in the current issue of Farm and Fireside, descriptive of a wise Ohio farmer who is doing well although his farm is small.

"One of the most interesting farms in Ohio is a twenty-five-acre tract of land near Arcanum, in Darke county, that is owned by Mr. Allen Geer. Of recent years the doctrine of 'the little farm well-tilled' has been widely preached but rarely practiced. This practical farm which is worked by Mr. Geer is one of the few exceptions where the possibility has been matured into a profitable actuality by the intensive pursuit of modern methods and up-to-date management. The farm is divided into five-acre plots on which a four-year rotation is followed: Clover, corn, tobacco and wheat constituting the crops that are raised. The land is of a rolling nature, while the soil is a rich, black loam which is never surfeited with water, due to six hundred and fifty rods of tile laid at a maximum depth of thirty inches, which furnish adequate means for thorough underdrainage.

"In the five years which he has owned his twenty-five-acre farm he has distributed five hundred tons of manure over the fields. A large portion of this fertilizer he secured in the neighboring towns for the hauling of it, while the rest of the manure cost him from ten to fifteen cents a load.

"To show that his efforts in replenishing the fertility of his soil have not been in vain, it is only necessary to mention that last year this progressive countryman harvested four hundred and fifty bushels of corn of fine quality from his five-acre cornfield, while for the past three years his wheat has never gone below thirty-nine bushels to the acre. His most profitable cash crop has been tobacco; his 1911 return from four and three-quarters acres amounted to $707.40. His tobacco usually averages around 1,350 pounds to the acre.

"And the best part of the proposition is that the Geer place is a regular Klondike nugget in its ability to draw money. During the last five years its owner, in addition to gaining an ample livelihood for himself and his family from the farm, has annually disposed of more than $900 worth of produce that was raised on this little tract."

A. Mitchell, a general merchant near Bagdad, Ky., writes us: "I think Foley Kidney Pills one of the greatest kidney medicines there is. My daughter was in terrible shape with kidney trouble and I got her to take it. She is completely cured now. I think it one of the greatest medicines made." All dealers.

A PENNSYLVANIA MAN COUGHED UP LUNG STONE

Henry Sample, a prominent farmer living near here, coughed up a 14-ounce lung stone yesterday while being attacked with a paroxysm of coughing.

Sample declares the stone had troubled him for many years, and he now feels none of the ill effects from which he suffered, and which the physician says were caused by the stone.

When asked if he had ever seen any case of lung stone in his practice, a well known specialist in this city said yesterday that he had, but never where such a weighty mass was coughed up by a patient.

"This case," added the specialist, "is certainly most extraordinary. The patient coughed up was really mucus that had formulated into a mass on the bronchial tubes as the result of limestone in the blood."

"There is a technical name for the stone-like substance. It is known as a broncholith and not a lung stone."

When asked if the broncholith would have caused death if it had not been ejected, the doctor said it probably would have had no fatal effect.—[Charlottesville (Penn.) Cor. New York Tribune.]

"It is a pleasure to tell you that Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is the best cough medicine I have ever used," writes Mrs. Hugh Campbell, of Lenoir, Ga. "I have used it with all my children and the results have been highly satisfactory." For sale by all dealers.

Why Mastic Paint?

BECAUSE

FIRST—It's pure—every atom of it—real paint manufactured from the finest raw material obtainable.

SECOND—It is made of pure white lead, re-inforced with zinc oxide in the correct proportion, and pure linseed oil. Will outwear, two to one, any straight lead or hand-mixed paint.

THIRD—Warranted to contain no adulteration. The formula 'THE KIND THAT LASTS' appears on every can. Guaranteed to give satisfaction.

FOURTH—Being full-bodied and machine ground, less MASTIC is required to paint a given surface than any other kind of paint or lead and oil. A SAVING OF MANY DOLLARS TO THE OWNER OF THE BUILDING.

FIFTH—In time to come, when painting is again desirable, a surface previously coated with MASTIC remains in perfect condition for repainting.

Specify MASTIC PAINT for your home and secure a beautiful hard, enamel-like finish that will resist best the smoke and gases of the city, the hot sun and severe weather exposure. MASTIC Outside Gloss White is the very whitest house paint made. MASTIC Paint does not discolor and go flat like keg lead in oil, nor peel and crack like the cheap ready mixed paint.

THIRD OF WEALTH IS IN THE HANDS OF TWO MEN

Interlocking Directorate System Gives Morgan-Rockefeller Interest Control.

Washington, Nov. 2.—The special experts employed by the House committee on banking and currency to ascertain to what extent the control of the commercial and financial interests of this country have become concentrated through the interlocking of the directorates of corporations, have submitted their report to Representative Pujo, of Louisiana, the chairman of the House committee on banking and currency. According to these experts, two men control between them more than one-third or 36 per cent. of the elective wealth and natural resources of the United States. These two men are J. Pierpont Morgan and John D. Rockefeller. The experts report to the committee on banking and currency the names of the interlocking directors in the great financial interests.

The financial control which J. Pierpont Morgan and John D. Rockefeller exercise over the industrial affairs of the United States has been built up, the experts of the Pujo committee assert, by the establishment and extension of the interlocking system of directorates. Furthermore, according to the reports submitted to the committee, there are no great rivals among the "big interests," but on the contrary, those interests are on good terms and follow the general policy of working together.

This is contrary to the popular assumption, but their conclusions, the banking and currency committee, investigators say, are borne out by their study of the directorates of all the important corporations in every part of the land.

No news is good news, but the same rule doesn't apply to luck.

A WINTER COAT

not only keeps cold out, but conserves body-warmth; body-fat serves the same purpose, it enables us to resist unsettled elements and serves as the great source of our body-heat. Greater body-warmth means richer blood, more fat, not obesity but fat which the body consumes for warmth, vitality, resistance-power—as a furnace consumes coal for heat—Scott's Emulsion does this.

A teaspoonful after each meal makes body-warmth—healthy, active blood—sharpens the appetite and makes all good food do good.

It drives out and keeps out colds by raising endurance-power and creating strength.

FREE SEED TESTING IS GRANTED TO FARMERS

Of Kentucky—How to Prepare Samples and Amount Required Of Each.

It may not be generally known to farmers and others in Kentucky that the Kentucky Agricultural Experiment Station is well equipped to test samples that may be submitted with a view of learning their quality, either as to purity or germination. A new laboratory for this work has been planned and is now nearing completion. When the incubators and other appliances are established, it will be one of the most complete in this country.

The Station has already won a reputation for work of this sort not only in this country, but in Europe, and those sending samples can be assured that they will be tested well and as promptly as the facilities will permit. Samples will be examined in the order in which they are received.

To get fair tests it is necessary that the samples be taken from a bush or after a thorough mixing of the seeds. Samples of Kentucky blue-grass and rye-grass should contain two ounces each. Samples of red clover, sapling clover, alsike clover, alfalfa, orchard grass, English blue-grass and rye-grass should contain two ounces each. Samples of Kentucky blue-grass, Canada blue-grass, red top and timothy should weigh one ounce each. The samples should be put in a stout paper envelope, not in ordinary correspondence envelopes because these are easily broken in the post-office and let the seeds escape. Put your complete address, plainly written, on each envelope sent us and forward to the Division of Entomology and Botany, Kentucky Agricultural Experiment Station, Lexington, Ky. A writing to us, always state whether both purity and germination tests are wanted.

KENTUCKY SYNOD HAD LARGE ATTENDANCE

Greenville, Ky., Oct. 30.—The eighty-fourth session of the Kentucky Synod of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church, which convened here yesterday afternoon, is being largely attended. At the meeting last evening the welcome on behalf of the churches of Greenville was extended by the Rev. Dr. W. R. Henderson, and on behalf of the city by Judge W. A. Wickliffe. The addresses were responded to by the Rev. J. L. Price, of Providence.

In the organization of the session the Rev. B. R. Henderson, of the Cumberland Presbyterian, was elected moderator, this being an unusual distinction, because Mr. Henderson was the only delegate present from the Cumberland Presbyterian, which comprises the mountain counties of Eastern Kentucky. The retiring moderator, the Rev. R. H. Morehead, of Caneyville, did not arrive yesterday, and the opening sermon was preached by the Rev. J. B. Eshman, of Hopkinsville. Members of the general assembly boards from a distance who are present are the Rev. J. L. Goodnight, of Lincoln, Ill.; the Rev. J. W. Duval, president of the Board of Missions, of Missouri, and the Rev. T. Ashburn, of Knoxville, president of the Young People's Board.

"There could be no better medicine than Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. My children were all sick with whooping cough. One of them was in bed, had a high fever and was coughing up blood. Our doctor gave them Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and the first dose eased them, and three bottles cured them," says Mrs. R. A. Donaldson, Lexington, Miss. For sale by dealers.

HUNTERS MUST HAVE LICENSE WITH THEM

In compliance with request from a number of local hunters, who are enthusiastic over the new game laws, and who are anxious that the law be enforced in this county, and that those who do not understand the law thoroughly, be below some of the most important points concerning all who wish to hunt.

The idea prevails that when a hunter obtains a license that it gives him the authority to hunt in the lands of any farmer without his permission. This is an egregious mistake. A license does permit a sportsman to hunt on the premises of another without obtaining his consent, and to do so without consent is a violation of the law. A person may hunt upon his own land and land he has rented without taking out a license. Members of a family and tenants on the place may also hunt upon the farm without a license, but before hunting upon the lands of another a license must be obtained, as well as the consent of the owner of the lands on which he hunts. A hunter must carry his license with him when in the field.

LESSON IN POLITENESS—HOW CASEY LEARNED IT

They tell me the following as a story that the late J. T. Harahan, former president of the Illinois Central Railroad, was fond of telling on himself:

Mr. Harahan was sitting in his office one day, while president of the road, when a burly Irishman entered the office.

"Me name's Casey," said he. "O! want a pass to St. Louis. O! worruk in th' yar-rds."

"That is no way to ask for a pass," said Mr. Harahan. "You should introduce yourself politely. Come back in an hour and try it again."

At the end of the hour back came the Irishman. Doffing his hat, he inquired:

"Ar're yez Mr. Harahan?"

"I am."

"Me name is Patrick Casey. O!ve been workin' out in th' yar-rds."

"Glad to know you, Mr. Casey. What can I do for you?"

"Yez can all go to hell. O!ve got a job an' a pass on th' Wabash."—[Everybody's Magazine.]

COMPULSORY SCHOOL LAW IS PROVING GOOD

The new compulsory school law which requires all children between the ages of seven and twelve years to attend school upon a penalty, is having a most beneficial effect on the daily attendance in the rural schools. The new law partly basing the salary of teachers upon the attendance at school is also having its effect, as the teachers are using their best efforts to increase their enrollments. In fact the two new laws that went into effect this year are having a most direct and satisfactory effect. Under the law the attendance in the county has been increased at least 10 per cent. over last year. The framers of the new law are to be congratulated over the good resulting from the passing of the measures.

SAYS TROUBLE IS NOT ALWAYS WITH THE LAND

But With Farmers in Failing To Adopt the Proper Crop Rotation.

Judson C. Welliver, Washington correspondent of Farm and Fireside, writes in the current issue of that periodical an interesting account of the United States Bureau of Soils. He says in part:

"Dr. Milton Whitney, chief of the soils bureau, insists that proper cultivation and rotation will make run-down soils produce again as well as ever. 'The trouble is not with the land, but with the people farming it, and their methods,' stoutly declares Dr. Whitney.

"The Bureau of Soils is trying to find out all about the changes in soils that are wrought as a result of cultivation. It declares that the mineral and metal basis changes very, very little. The products of vegetable and animal growth, on the other hand, change greatly and modify soil qualities very much. One will be useful and benevolent, another vicious and harmful.

"A certain soil, once producing excellent crops of wheat had become 'exhausted.' Cow-peas ground very fine were applied and it was found they had restored the soil; it produced a good crop, and did the thing three times in succession; then the soil lapsed back into its first condition of non-productivity.

"Why did the cow-peas have that effect? The Bureau took like proportions of potash, phosphoric acid and nitrates—the plant-food elements of cow-peas—and put them into the soil; and it didn't produce the effect of restoring its fertility. The point seemed to be that these various elements, mixed together and applied to the ground, didn't have the genuine cow-pea effect.

"Doctor Whitney in a recent address gave this explanation of the operation within the soil of various agents introduced through rotation of crops. He seems to have a considerable backing of authority and experience in favor of his theory that fertilization is, at least, much less necessary, if scientific rotation is followed. His bureau's problem is to develop the correct scientific rotation for various soils and climates."

HOP YEAST BREAD.

Take—Hops, one fourth ounce (one handful); pared potatoes, four pounds; salt, one half pint; sugar, one half pint; ginger, one tablespoonful; water, four quarts; yeast (home-brewed), one half pint. Boil the potatoes in three quarts of water and pass them (with the water) through the colander; boil the hops ten minutes in one quart of water; strain the water on the potatoes; add the sugar, salt and ginger. The whole should measure five quarts; if it lacks, add tepid water. When lukewarm, add the yeast, mix well and leave in a warm place till light; this will be indicated by bubbles on the surface; it does not increase in bulk like thicker yeast. Keep it in a covered crock, and in using, stir it from the bottom. A gill is sufficient for one quart of milk or water and the bread will require little, if any, additional salt. In a dry, cool place, this yeast will keep for months.

Not On Exhibition.

Jimmie had been a naughty boy, we presume, but there is a note of pathos with the humor of the conversation he conducted with the little girl next door on the day after his sixth birthday, says the Cleveland Plain Dealer.

"Show me what you got for your birthday, Jimmie," begged the little girl.

"I won't do it," said Jimmie.

"Oh, please. Ain't I, nice to you?"

"Yep. Your're all right."

"Then show me what you got."

"I darsen't—honest, Marg-ret, I darsen't!"

SOMETHING ABOUT THE MANAGEMENT OF HOGS

A pig is nothing more nor less than a machine whose function is to convert farm products into salable meat products. Very often he is rated as a scavenger, fed only because he squeals, and is looked upon merely as a convenient source of disposing of refuse products. There is no animal that responds to feeding and decent treatment more promptly than the pig, and he is a dependable source of profit if given average care and fair treatment.

ment. It must be remembered that the most economical gains are made when the animal is young, i. e., under 9 months of age, and that gains are costly after full growth and maturity are reached. Pigs gain most economically when from 4 months to 10 months of age, and, generally speaking, it costs more to put on the last 100 pounds of weight of a 300-pound hog than it does to produce the first 200 pounds of body weight. A feeder that does not secure an average gain of one pound per day from birth with his pigs, either has inferior specimens or does not feed and care for them in the most up-to-date manner. The most profitable time to market a fat hog is when he weighs from 225 to 250 pounds live weight, and he should tip the scales at these figures when 8 months old. Larger gains are common with our best feeders. The pig that will develop into the heaviest quality hog, in the shortest length of time, and make the best gains from a given amount of feed fed, is the ideal pork-making unit.—[New Jersey Live Stock Commission.]

LUKE MCLUKE SAYS.

Men are not all ingrates. Ten years ago a Mortant woman refused to marry a man, and last week he left her $250,000.

Love may be blind, but it can always tell when there is a dime missing from the pay envelope on Saturday night.

Once upon a time a man invented a common-sense skirt for women. It was roomy and gave the wearer perfect freedom. It did not fit tight across the hips and had no crease in the rear. It did not show the shape of the limbs, and you couldn't see through it. It was warm and comfortable. The poor sucker starved to death.

A woman gets tired of cooking for her husband. But how she does enjoy cooking for an outsider who praises her efforts!

A man who bragged that he cussed, smoked, played poker and shot craps was married by a woman who wanted to reform him. Now he has added booze drinking and tobacco chewing to his other accomplishments.

One good way to start trouble is to clip a paragraph out of a newspaper and then bring the paper home. Your wife will be sure to see the hole in the paper, and she will worry herself sick trying to imagine what it was that you didn't want her to see.

Nowadays if a man finds that the girl he has married has her own hair, her own hips and her own bust, he should overlook a little thing like a bad temper and consider himself lucky.

Married While You Work.

A Kansas Judge established a precedent last week by marrying a couple in a broomcorn field. The couple had eloped and found the Judge at work in his field, as he was short of hands. He married them upon condition that they would work out the charges in that field, which they did.

BRIDE COULDN'T STAND FOR GROOM'S WHISKERS

And Refused to Marry Him Until a Compromise Was Effected.

Pittsburg, Penn., Nov. 2.—"I just couldn't stand for Raymond's horrid whiskers," said pretty Michalina Peconski to-day. "But I love him so much. Oh, so much, and when he agreed to cut them off for me, I felt sorry and said he ought keep just a little bit of the horrid things on his chin. A goatee, Raymond called it."

With a naive shrug of her shoulders after speaking, the pretty Polish girl turned to her big, strong and handsome lover, Raymond Zoland, and holding out her hands said:

"My Raymond with a goatee, yes, but no whiskers, never, never."

Raymond and Michalina were married to-day by Justice of the Peace Daniel Carsey, of West Pittsburg, after a stormy courtship. Two weeks ago Raymond secured a license to wed Michalina, and they were about to take the nuptial step when the pretty little bride-to-be demanded that her fiancé be shorn of his abundant crop of whiskers, which made his facial contour a matter of guess work.

Raymond demurred at the loss of his beloved hirsute adornment, but Michalina was firm and the wedding was off. Mere whiskers, however, though they were of extraordinary texture and growth, could not beat Cupid in his own game, and through the intervention of kind friends and a little forbearance on the part of both, Raymond and Michalina to-day finally settled the question.

SMALL BOY BADLY HURT—RUN OVER BY COAL WAGON

Lander Hill, the six-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. A. Hill, of the Sorgho neighborhood, suffered a very serious injury on Friday afternoon that will probably result in the amputation of his right leg. Young Hill was standing on the rear wheel of a coal wagon, with one foot sticking between the spokes. When the driver, not knowing that he was on the wagon, started the team, he was thrown violently to the ground, in such a position that the wagon passed over his right thigh. He was taken to his home near Sorgho, but on account of the seriousness of his injury, he was taken to the city hospital at Owensboro Saturday afternoon. The physicians made an examination of the injury and found that the thigh was badly mashed, but did not know whether or not an amputation would be necessary.

FIFTY CASES HOOKWORM IN THE EASTERN HOSPITAL

Experts Report Presence Also of Pellagra—Three Patients Have Died.

Lexington, Ky., Nov. 2.—The hookworm and pellagra investigation which is being conducted at the Eastern Kentucky Hospital for the Insane by Misses James and Fenwick, experts, under the direction of the Kentucky Board of Health, has brought out much interesting information which they embrace in the report they will make when their work is completed next week. They have examined about 100 persons a day, and so far they have found about fifty cases of hookworm and also a number of cases of pellagra. The investigation of pellagra, however, will be resumed next summer, as the symptoms of this disease are much more pronounced in the warm season.

An interesting fact developed is that pellagra patients are nearly always sufferers from hookworm, though the treatments for the two diseases are entirely different. Superintendent J. A. Goodson, of the hospital, is hopeful that the investigation may bring out whether there is any connection between hookworm and pellagra. Dr. Goodson states that hookworm can usually be cured, requiring ordinarily only a brief treatment. Dr. Goodson expects to bring to light all of the cases in the hospital and after they are cured to institute a strict medical examination which will make it practically impossible to bring the disease into the hospital again. Not only will the patients, but all of the attendants be examined, as several cases of hookworm have been found among the attendants during this investigation. Three patients have died from hookworm since the investigation was begun at the hospital and a post-mortem examination of the body of one of them revealed the presence of more than 3,000 of the parasites.

IN MEMORIAM.

Death has visited the Clear Run Baptist Church and claimed as his own Bro. A. T. Handley, Bro. Handley was born March 8, 1862; was married to Miss Liza Hoover and professed a hope in Christ in 1905 and lived a true Christian until death, Oct. 24, 1912, aged 50 years, 7 months and 16 days. The funeral services were conducted by his pastor, L. W. Tichenor, and Bro. R. E. Fuqua. He was buried at Clear Run Church.

Bro. Handley was of an amiable disposition. He was loved and honored by all who knew him. Liberal with his means, his great heart beat in loving sympathy with Christ and man, and countless kindnesses are to his credit in the life he lived and the world is better for his life and heaven has gained its own.

His loved and sorrowing ones have the sympathy and prayers of the church.

L. B. TICHENOR,
C. T. FUNK,
